Re: Export of Domestic Sale

To Whom It May Concern,

Aero Components, LLC will not use purchased goods from your company for export, resale, or means outside what is stated on the purchase order.

We understand the following:

“Under the Foreign Trade Regulations (FTR), 15 CFR Part 30, the USPPI is defined as the party in the U.S. that receives the primary benefit of the export transaction, monetarily or otherwise. As the U.S. purchaser who will sell the merchandise for export, your company will be the USPPI for the export of these goods (unless a subsequent domestic purchaser becomes the USPPI).”

Aero Components, LLC also understands some of the goods we will purchase are subject to the Export Administration Regulations (EAR) and under the export licensing jurisdiction of the Bureau of Industry and Security; some goods may be subject to the Department of State, Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTS). We understand that Aero Components, LLC will be responsible for all export control requirements under the EAR and ITAR as applicable to the export transactions.

Thank you,

Jon Williams, Jr.
President
