

Aero Components, LLC, founded in 1978, is an OEM approved, full service manufacturer of complex bonded and composite assemblies. Our motto is Always Committed to Improvement. This core belief and operating philosophy is instilled in all of our team members so everyone feels empowered to perform their operation to the utmost quality standard.

We are currently looking to add a 1st shift painter assistant to the team. This occupation requires Paint prep of parts, Alodining the parts, the mixing of paint, sanding, masking, painting, lettering and numbering of parts for purposes of finishing the aircraft product.

Responsibilities:

- Check surfaces prior to painting or treating for proper preparation
- Operate associated paint equipment and facilities to perform preparation operations
- Work from drawings, sketches, schematics, planning, change orders and verbal instructions
- Apply tape and paper or other stencil and covers for coating location
- Identifies and number the appropriate part per engineering or blueprint requirements.
- Performs rework, glazing, stripping, patching, masking, sanding, etc., as required.
- Responsible for cleaning of paint booths and applying protection coating to walls and/or floors as required.
- Responsible for maintaining the cleanliness and housekeeping in work area as directed as well as assuring the accuracy of their work.

Qualifications:

- Must have been a painter/finisher for two (2) years in a manufacturing environment
- Ability to interpret blueprints
- Able to set up and operate various types spray guns and other painting equipment
- Experience with sanding and masking complex configurations
- Basic shop math skills